Don't It Put You Back? A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right not you want something that will relieve and cure the more and more annoying results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible, if not possible for you, then in other case take the only remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with such a record of cure and long trouble. The steamer City of Pittsburgh made the run from Hanging Rock to Cincinnati last Thursday between 7.30 a. m. and 4 p. m., and stopped to put off 500 barrels of salt on route. This is certainly a sensational run.

The Government Snagboat E. A. Woodruff is lying at Cincinnati receiving repairs. Captain W. H. Christian, the hard working Master of the boat, is usually engaged preparing specifications for work that is to be done. Numerous small contracts have been let, and Captain Christian will let several more next Monday. A new roof is being put on the big snagboat, the old one having served its time of twenty-five years and is now worn out. New mud drums and steam drums will be put on before the Woodruff can go out again. Captain Christian has the old drums cut off, and is ready for the new ones, which have been rolled, but which have to be put together. The boat is being given thorough overhauling—both her hull and her machinery—and, while it is away, Captain Christian hopes to be ready to begin the work of clearing the river of obstructions about May 15th. A large number of men are now at work on the boat and all headway possible is being made. Her first trip will be to Pittsburgh.

There is more Chert in this section of the country than all other places put together, and the last few years have been the best for it. Question Answered. You August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your doctors and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for indigestion or biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of Appointments, Nervous Prostration or Heart Failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of acids, relieve food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous system, and give the system, and that is all they took when feeling ill and bed with headaches and other ills. You only need a few doses of Great's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. For sale by J. C. Peck.

OUR LETTER BOX

Correspondents will please give facts as briefly as possible, when anything of great importance occurs use the Telegram or the Telephone at our expense.

MOUNT GILEAD.

Mr. Howard Farrow is in bed and under the care of Dr. Dobyns.

Miss Lide Morehead is unconscious most of the time and her two sisters, Miss Kate and Mrs. Frane, are with her, but both are in bed under the doctor's treatment.

The winter is reaching so far into the lap of spring that vegetation is slow in appearing. Plants in the earliest sown beds are just beginning to show their tiny double-leaf, yet preparations are slowly but surely being made for a full crop. The prospect for wheat and newly sown grass is excellent, though just emerging from a pretty cold winter, protected by frequent snows. We should not be discouraged or impatient, —there is a time to sow and a time to reap; there is a time for all things. If the planting season comes, the season for growing and maturing may vary in proportion. Some have come to the conclusion that early or late planting of corn is generally better than between, more likely to escape the droughts that sometimes so seriously affect it at a certain stage of its growth.

RECTORVILLE.

Arthur Pollitt is very low. Will Anker of Indiana has moved to Rectorville.

Mr. Allen Hughes will go to Portsmouth Tuesday.

John Lyons has purchased the Allen Hughes property.

Farmers are getting along slowly with their spring work. Some are going to plant corn Monday.

Mr. James Bueh has gone to Newport on a visit to his daughters, Mrs. Minnie Friesch and Miss May Bueh.

Mr. Welland of Pennsylvania spent a few days here recently, the guest of one of our young ladies. Humor precludes a wedding in the near future.

Mr. Pete Carpenter of Flemingsburg was here last week to see his brother, William Carpenter, who is quite sick at the home of his grand-daughter, Mrs. Coleman Vice.

The very large and ferocious St. Bernard dog of Dr. B. F. Eckman got hold of poison about a week ago. Whether it was done on purpose or accidentally we do not know, but if any one did it we think they did a kindness to the community in disposing of this nuisance, as it had attacked a number of passersby at various times who were unarmed and barely escaped being badly bitten. It would have been gratifying to many had it occurred sooner.

The remains of Mary Leslie, the little daughter of Dr. B. F. Eckman and wife of Flemingsburg, were interred in our cemetery last Saturday afternoon. Little Mary was born at this place in July, 1868. She was a bright, cheerful and attractive child; a favorite among her playmates and admired by all who came in contact with her. Her visits here were always greeted with delight by her little friends, and her many odd and wise sayings would have done credit to those of more mature years. The grief-stricken and sorrowing parents have the sympathy of our community in their bereavement.

It troubled by a weak digestion, loss of appetite and constipation, try a few doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by J. J. Wood & Son, Druggists.

ELECT HIM AGAIN!

INDORSING TAYLOR.

If the Foul Conspiracy Succeeds, He Should Be Re-elected.

Consistent Commercial Tribune.

The Kentucky Courts, it is granted, have in effect said that the removal of Governor Taylor from the office to which the people elected him is good in law, while pernicious in fact. In other words, it is an outrage against civil liberty, perpetrated "under the forms of law," and beyond correction by the Courts for want of jurisdiction. Because the state Courts have confessed inability, as well as disinclination, to review this Legislative subversion of suffrage franchise, attempt is now made to have the Federal Supreme Court determine whether this procedure is in strict conformity to the spirit of the Federal Constitution and the republican form of government guaranteed to every state. Is not Governor Taylor entirely within his rights as a citizen, and of an official, deposed by usurpation, in taking this perfectly legal proceeding? The whole spirit of Judge Wright's criticism negatives that right. And, by the way, it is sympathy and help, not criticism and discouragement, that Kentucky Republicans need from their party outside the state—sympathy and subscriptions in aid of their efforts to maintain the right under menace of a great wrong.

Governor Taylor holds his office by the expressed will of majority. He is declared not entitled to it by a factional division of a partisan Legislature. That action of abrogation was had in illegal secret session and in defiance of Legislative precedent and Constitutional provision. A Journal that is a manifest lie on its perjury-bearing face records the outrage as of regular proceeding and a Court declares itself impotent to prevent a palpable violation of law and a self-evident subversion of suffrage. Recourse is laid to the highest tribunal of the country upon a plea of contravention of the Constitution. Meantime, Governor Taylor quietly and with dignity maintains his position as the choice of the majority until this last judicial source of relief shall have been exhausted. This falling him and the people, he will, perforce of law outraged and impotent to preserve its prestige through tribunals of interpretation and enforcement, give up the place to which the people elected him, and in due course appeal his cause back to the voters, the real sovereigns, as will be demonstrated when the issue comes to a vital test.

In this thought is reminder of an incident of another generation recalled by The Lexington Herald, which is respectfully referred to the calm and judicial reflection of Judge Wright and the Goebette usurpers of Kentucky. It occurred about thirty-nine years ago, when another Democratic faction decided that it would not be governed by the majority. When this fact was well ascertained an armed resistance was organized, the United States took such steps as were necessary to establish the rule of the majority. In the Republican state Convention held in Louisville in May, 1861, Rev. Robert J. Breckinridge, probably the most talented of that remarkable family—one descendant of which is now of the usurping Goebette officials and another, his brother, a distinguished champion of the cause of the people against the outrage—made a speech proposing Mr. Lincoln for reelection, to which he spoke in essence to this effect:

"Mr. Speaker, I nominate Abraham Lincoln as a candidate for President of the United States because he is the very best man for the place. But I would nominate him for that office whether he were the best man for the place or not, because he was elected to that office and his election has been defied, until it has become necessary for the people of one-half of this country to throw the people of the other half until they are made to understand that the will of the majority is the supreme law of the land."

Governor Taylor will surrender the commission of the majority to the command of the minority when resource of law in rescue of this threatened right is exhausted, not before. He will then appeal to the people, and he will be re-elected, if for no other reason than because he has been elected to that office and his election by the people has been defied by a faction bent on trouble and breeding calamity.

Nearly every person needs a tonic medicine at this time of year to brace up and invigorate the nervous system, to cleanse the bowels, liver and kidneys. Herbine is the best and most reliable remedy to do this. It will cure constipation, regulate the bowels, enrich the blood. Price, 20 cents. J. J. Wood & Son.

At Washington Opera-house Monday, April 23d. Seats now on sale at Nelson's.

FOR THE PUBLIC GOOD.

The Information Contained in This Circular Statement is Available to Mayville People.

When a resident of Mayville, whose statement appears below, who has no monetary or other interest in the article which he indorses, who is anxious to do his acquaintances and fellow-residents a good turn, who publishes in this paper his experience with Doan's Kidney Pills, that citizen must have good and sufficient reason for doing so. The following should dispel any doubts which may have existed in the reader's mind on this subject.

Mr. P. Gantley, grocer, of 314 East Fourth street, says:

The prompt and thorough relief from backache given by Doan's Kidney Pills is the strongest inducement possible. When backache is caused by the least of the troubles of the kidneys, the only reason for continuing to suffer is the want of knowledge of Doan's Kidney Pills. I procured them at J. J. Wood & Son's Drugstore, West Second Street, Market street.

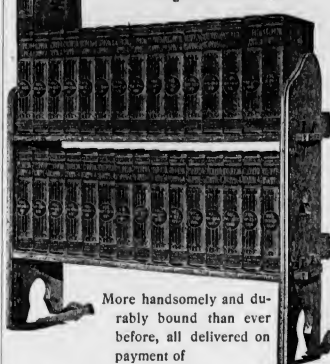

For sale by all dealers; price 50 cents a box. POSTER-MILBURN CO., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S. Remember the name—DOAN'S—and take no other.

I tried numerous remedies but could not get relief until I was recommended by friends to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. They recommended it to me. I bought a bottle. I was soon relieved of all pain.
